

CALL FOR PAPERS
Midwest Regional Annual Meeting
March 23-24, 2018
Grace Bible College
1011 Aldon Street SW
Wyoming, MI 49509

Theme: “The Future of Evangelical Theology”

Plenary Speaker: Amos Yong, Professor of Theology and Mission and Director of the Center for Missiological Research, Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena, CA

Dr. Yong is the author or editor of over two dozen books, including Spirit of Love: A Trinitarian Theology of Grace, The Spirit Poured Out on All Flesh: Pentecostalism and the Possibility of Global Theology, and The Future of Evangelical Theology: Soundings from the Asian American Diaspora. He is one of Evangelicalism’s leading thinkers on an emerging, global Christian theology.

Participants at the Midwest Regional ETS Meeting are invited to share their scholarship at the conference, either on the theme of the conference or some other area of biblical or theological research.

In order to be included in the schedule of papers, please send the following to: Robert C. Kurka, Chairperson (rkurka@lincolncristian.edu)

- A paper proposal including title, abstract/description of content
- Your credentials or biographical sketch
- Note any technological needs, e.g. presentation aids, internet

Please email your proposal so that it arrives by January 15, 2018. Meeting this deadline is very important for program preparation.
