Welcome to the 59th Annual Meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society.

It is a delight for me to welcome you to this 59th meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society in the beautiful city of San Diego.

Our theme this year, “Teaching Them to Obey,” focuses on one of the many dimensions of the Great Commission of our Lord Jesus. We will attempt, through some of the finest theological minds of our time, to break this theme down into its component parts and take a fresh look at it in the context and challenges of our own day. While we do not normally have the opportunity to interact with our plenary speakers in a formal setting, this year each of the four plenary addresses will be followed by its own plenary theme session, in which two presenters will offer their perspective on the sub-theme, with the plenary speaker present to interact with them and the members of the Society.

In addition to our distinguished plenary speakers, many members of our Society will explore the conference theme as well, and others will read papers on various biblical, theological, literary, and pastoral topics that will enlighten, inspire, and challenge us to further thought and action. Also, to our distinct advantage, we will have the opportunity to learn from the professional societies that meet along with ours.

ETS is honored this year to celebrate the 50th anniversary of our own Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society, shaped and guided by five respected editors through its history. At the annual banquet on Thursday evening, Crossway Books & Bibles will present a special Golden Jubilee Volume to the current editor, and we will honor and give thanks for the editors who have served us so well.

The Journal, of course, is only one of the many things we have to celebrate together in this Society that provides a place for open and honest scholarship in an age when we, like our predecessors in the academy and church, still have so much to teach and so much to obey. I hope you will take advantage of every opportunity this meeting provides, including the many book exhibits, personal and professional moments of interaction with colleagues, and the thoughtful stimulation of ideas.

ONLINE CONFERENCE REGISTRATION

To register, visit www.etsjets.org and click on "Annual Conference Registration." This will take you to a secure online web site handling all our registrations for our 59th Annual Meeting. If you cannot access the internet for registration, please call 434-237-5309.

On-site registrations will be handled in the foyer of the Atlas Ballroom. ALL name badges will be distributed on-site, available for pick-up in the Foyer of the Atlas Ballroom.

No badges will be mailed.

Early bird registration is $20 for ETS, EPS, NEAS, and ATS members; $10 for students who are members of these societies. Early registration is through September 30. Late registration doubles the price. Bottom line—register early and save money. Non-members may register for $60. Any on-site registration (any after November 10), will cost an additional $15. All presenters for ETS, EPS, NEAS, ATS, and Study Groups must register.

Tickets for the annual ETS fellowship banquet, Thursday at 7:00 PM, are available for $10. This is a $29 meal that ETS subsidizes. The banquet will feature the Golden Anniversary of The Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society. Speakers will include past editors of the journal.

LOCATION AND FACILITIES

The 59th Annual Meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society will be November 14-16, 2007, and will be held at:
