Welcome to the 61st Annual Meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society

Personal and Social Ethics—the theme of this year’s conference—can hardly be challenged for appropriateness in the climate of relativism and pluralism that characterizes the present generation. We as Evangelicals are constantly confronted with issues demanding serious biblical and theological response in the realms of both individual everyday life and of public polity. Whether in the classroom, the pulpit, or the public square we cannot evade decision-making for ourselves and for others who look to us for guidance in living life in the secular community while holding fast to everlastingly true and non-negotiable biblical principles of belief and behavior. Our role, especially as Evangelical leaders, could not be plainer: We must understand thoroughly the moral, ethical, and spiritual issues involved and be prepared to confront them with well thought-out and timely interaction.

Not only the theme papers of this year’s conference, but many others as well, provide well-grounded insights and solutions to the myriad of personal and public ethical dilemmas. As a Society we are delighted to invite you to partake of the spread set before you with the prayer that Almighty God, the source and sustainer of all that is just and righteous, will bless us with his presence and power, enlightening our minds and challenging our hearts to be about the work of the Kingdom as prophets who speak truth with compassion and with a certain sound.

I would be remiss not to thank my assistant, Debra T. Dyk, for the great investment she made in time and effort in helping me to compose the program. Special gratitude must go also to David M. Howard, James A. Borland, the chairs of the scholarly units and their vetting committees, and, finally, the staff of B&H Publishing Group for their high level of professionalism in bringing this printed program to fruition.

The terms Section, Study Group, and Consultation refer to established units of the Evangelical Theological Society whose programs consist of invited papers, the most suitable of which are selected by a jury to be sent on as a package to the Program Chairman of the Society. All other papers are submitted either as those in line with the theme of the conference or as miscellaneous papers categorized as Open. The term Session indicates papers of the latter two kinds. # How can a GOOD God allow EVIL and suffering?

The End of Christianity

Finding a Good God in an Evil World

William A. Dembski

ABOUT THE BOOK

A leading intelligent design supporter writes to prove a good God's existence in an evil world, in turn explaining what the end result of true Christianity must be. He writes to make peace with three claims: (1) God by wisdom created the world out of nothing. (2) God exercises particular providence in the world. (3) All evil in the world ultimately traces back to human sin. In the process, Dembski brings the reader to a fresh understanding of what "the end (result) of Christianity" really means: the radical realignment of our thinking so that we see God's goodness in creation despite the distorting effects of sin in our hearts and evil in the world.

Jewish Missionary Activity in the Second Temple Period

MICHAEL F. BIRD

Bird examines the extent and nature of Jewish proselytizing among non-Jews in Palestine and the Greco-Roman Diaspora leading up to and during the beginnings of the Christian era. Based on evidence from forced conversions during the Maccabean period, Qumran, the Gospels, Palestinian inscriptions, and rabbinic literature, Bird asserts that no significant Jewish proselytizing activity occurred in Second Temple Palestine. ### The Jewish Background to John's Logos Theology

JOHN RONNING

Ronning makes the case that the Jewish Targums—interpretive translations of the Old Testament into Aramaic that were read in the synagogues in Palestine where John grew up—hold the key to understanding John's concept of the Logos. He demonstrates how connecting the Logos with the Targumic concept of Memra clarifies theological themes such as: Jesus' "I am" sayings, Jesus' self-designation as the "Son of Man," the meaning of Jesus' going to "prepare a place" for his followers, and Jesus' role as bridegroom and lawgiver.

Encouraging Christians to THINK through issues Biblically & Theologically

Systematic Theology Volume 1
Grounded in Holy Scripture and understood in light of the Church
Douglas F. Kelly
"I have written this first volume, thinking of my heritage as both Reformed and Catholic; gladly appropriating crucial insights of the whole people of God over the last two thousand years – Eastern Orthodox, Western Catholic, and Reformation Protestant – as they sought to live out the foundational truths of the inspired Word of God."

Doug Kelly
ISBN 978-1-84550-386-4 | HB | $39.99

Galatians
A Mentor Commentary
David McWilliams
Written principally, though not exclusively as an aid to preachers, Galatians is an exposition that is scholarly yet readable, combining the rare qualities of depth and brevity. The author sees Paul's paramount concern to be acceptance with God through the work of Christ. "I highly recommend this resource to my fellow-preachers of the good news of God's Son."

Dennis E Johnson
ISBN 978-1-84550-452-6
Large Trade | HB | $24.99

Creation, Fall and Restoration
A Biblical Theology of Creation
Andrew Kulikovskiy
Kulikovskiy seeks to get to the crux of what has been an issue of disagreement among Christians from before the era of Darwin. All who genuinely seek the truth in these matters will find this book both refreshing and challenging.

ISBN 978-1-84550-446-5 | PB | $19.99

Westminster Confession Volume 3
Ligon Duncan III (Editor)
This important collection of essays seeks to place the work of the Westminster Assembly in its historical, theological, political and social setting and challenge inaccurate historical assertions that have since become commonplace.
"This book is a worthy successor to the first two volumes in this series. I celebrate its publication and commend it to all who love the church."

R. Albert Mohler
ISBN 978-1-85792-992-8 | HB | $39.99

Finally Alive
John Piper
"Regeneration, or new birth, meaning simply the new you through, with, in, and under Christ, is a largely neglected theme today, but this fine book, criss-crossing the New Testament data with great precision, goes far to fill the gap. Highly recommended."

J. I. Packer

ISBN 978-1-84550-421-2
Large Trade | PB | $14.99

God's People in Wilderness
The Church In Hebrews
O. Palmer Robertson

- 366 Exploring Stewardship notes.
- Profiles of individuals.
- Notes on challenges to stewardship.
- Quotes on stewardship from respected Christians throughout the ages.
- Articles and helps.

"Too many Christians hold their Bible in one hand and their checkbook in the other, never bringing the two together. What a tragedy! The NIV Stewardship Study Bible bridges that gap and shows you how to apply God's Word to your whole life – money and all!"

Advance praise

"A unique and important commentary. . . . It is a milestone in the collection and comparative interpretation of ancient Near Eastern texts, pictures, and other archaeological materials as well as geographical, historical, and cultural information as they relate to the Old Testament. There is nothing else like it available today."

—Richard E. Averbeck, Professor of Old Testament and Semitic Languages, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School

"An impressive and rich resource for scholars, students, seminarians, and interested lay readers. . . . The volumes, with their insightful and perceptive commentaries, updated footnotes, wonderful illustrations, and sidebars—all judiciously researched—contain a veritable thesaurus of enlightening information relating to the Hebrew Bible within the cultural, ideological, and religious world of the ancient Near East. Notwithstanding their traditional approach to Scripture, I heartily recommend this series with enthusiasm."

—Shalom Paul, Professor Emeritus and former Chair of the Bible Department, Hebrew University

INTERPRETING THE PENTATEUCH
An Exegetical Handbook
HANDBOOKS FOR OLD TESTAMENT
EXEGESIS
Peter T. Vogt,
Edited by David M. Howard Jr.
$21.99 ETS: $11.00

In this latest addition to the Handbooks for Old Testament Exegesis series, Peter T. Vogt continues the tradition of excellence established by previous volumes. Divided into three parts, Interpreting the Pentateuch first provides an overview of the major themes of the Pentateuch. In the second part, Vogt offers resources and strategies for interpreting and understanding the first five books of the Bible by exploring its genres—law and narrative. Finally, Vogt shows that, although the Pentateuch is a collection of ancient texts, it still has contemporary significance. Vogt also includes two samples—one from law and one from narrative—of exegesis, giving students a start-to-finish example of the techniques he has illustrated for effective exegesis.

READING REVELATION
A Comparison of Four Interpretive Translations of the Apocalypse
C. Marvin Pate
$22.99 ETS: $11.50

Intriguing and endlessly contentious ideas and images of apocalyptic proportion all come together in the book of Revelation. It is a rich and hermeneutically complicated Scripture that, unsurprisingly, has no universally accepted interpretation. Reading Revelation compares the four major approaches to Revelation by laying out the different interpretive translations provided by each school of thought in parallel columns and—in order to provide a standard of reference—includes a fifth column presenting the Greek text and a literal word-for-word translation.

New Resources for Teaching and Research

This brief, informative volume presents a rationale for using Hebrew in one's teaching and preaching ministry and a workable method for doing so.
This tool will serve as a reminder of the benefits of using the original language.
$17.99 ETS: $9.00

This broad-ranging collection of the primary sources that have shaped the theology of Christianity spans Old Testament to modern writings and includes an informative introduction and guiding questions from the author.
$34.99 ETS: $17.50

Biblical theology comes alive in this "hindsight" examination of the biblical narrative. Using the theory to start from the denouement in Revelation's last verses and working backward, Alexander pieces together the Bible's plot.
$19.99 ETS: $10.00

There are few beliefs more essential to Christianity than that of the Trinity. Millard Erickson seeks to provide a lucid and judicious answer to the question: Is Jesus eternally subordinate to the Father, or is Jesus equal with the Father?
$19.99 ETS: $10.00

In 2 Corinthians 4:12, Paul describes the philosophy of his ministry as "death in us, but life in you." Building on this scriptural framework, Steven Smith illustrates the theology of preaching through the metaphor of vicarious suffering.
$14.99 ETS: $7.50

Benjamin Merkle grounds this study about church elders in the Word of God as he clearly and succinctly informs laypeople of the scriptural qualifications and responsibilities of elders and deacons.

The Great Turning Point

With illuminating attention to detail, Answers in Genesis scholar Dr. Terry Mortenson presents his fascinating original research. This book documents the early 19th century origin of the idea of millions of years, the Christian men who opposed that idea, and how and why most of the church quickly accepted it.

The Young Earth

This classic work from Dr. John Morris (geologist and president of the Institute for Creation Research) explains and documents for the non-geologist some of the powerful geological evidence for Noah's Flood and a young earth. With a well-illustrated chapter on radiometric dating, it shows how true science confirms the history given in Genesis 1-11.

Thousands . . . Not Billions

This documentary DVD is the result of eight years of research by a team of PhD creation scientists. It shows why the radiometric dating methods employed by evolutionists are not reliable and therefore do not refute the Bible's chronology of earth history.
