Holiness

קְדוּשׁ | קְדוּשׁ קְדוּשׁ יְהוָה צְבָאוֹת
מִלֹּא כָל־הָאָרֶץ בְּבוֹדוֹ:

For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness.

ἀλλὰ κατὰ τὸν καλέσαντα ὑμᾶς
ἅγιον καὶ αὐτοὶ ἅγιοι ἐν πάσῃ

ἀναστροφῇ
γενήθητε, διότι
γέγραπται· ἅγιοι ἔσεσθε,
ὅτι ἐγὼ ἅγιος.

There is none
holy like the LORD: for there is none
besides you; there is no rock like our God.

מִי־כְמֹכָהּ בְּאֵלִים יְהוָה מִי כְמֹכָהּ
נִאֲדָר בַּקֶּדֶשׁ נִזְרָא תְהִלָּת עֲשֵׂה
פֶּלֶא:

I will show my greatness and my holiness and make myself known in the eyes of many nations.

καθὼς ἐξελέξατο ἡμᾶς ἐν αὐτῷ
πρὸ καταβολῆς κόσμου εἶναι
ἡμᾶς ἁγίους καὶ ἀμώμους
κατενώπιον αὐτοῦ

Put on the new self, created after the likeness of God
in true righteousness and holiness.

Letter from the Program Chair

Welcome to the 74rd Annual Meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society

The first meeting of ETS was held with some 60 scholars in December 1949 at the downtown Y.M.C.A. in Cincinnati, Ohio. This was a signal event in the history of American Christianity as Bible-believing scholars from a variety of institutions and denominations came together to form a new association “to foster conservative biblical scholarship by providing a medium for the oral exchange and written expression of thought and research in the general field of the theological disciplines as centered in the Scriptures.” Since that humble beginning, God has continued to bless the work of this Society far beyond, I dare say, the expectations of those who launched this effort nearly 75 years ago.

The theme of each of the ETS annual meetings is chosen several years in advance. This year’s theme is Holiness. In the Bible, holiness is both an attribute of God and the divinely-mandated requirement for all of God’s people, “Ye shall be holy; for I am holy” (Lev. 11:44; 1 Peter 1:16). We shall explore this wondrously rich biblical theme in a variety of sessions and presentations throughout the annual meeting. We have invited three outstanding scholars to help us focus our attention on the major implications of holiness throughout the Bible and in our Christian life. This year’s plenary speakers are:

John Oswalt
Asbury Theological Seminary
“Holiness: The Goal of Human Life”

Michael Haykin
The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary
“‘War with the hydra of Antinomianism’: The Baptist Tradition and the Pursuit of Holiness in the Long Eighteenth Century”

Han-luen Kantzer Konline
Western Theological Seminary (Holland, Michigan)
“Holiness and the Christian Life: An Augustinian Perspective”

As the Society has grown in membership, so have the number of submissions to present papers. This is an encouraging development, and we are grateful for all members who have made proposals. While not all of these could be accepted you will find in this program an impressive number of perspectives exploring the biblical call to holiness. One of the highlights of each annual meeting is the presidential address and we all look forward eagerly to this year’s presentation by our ETS president, Dr. D.A. Carson, “Trishagion: Foundation for Christian Mission.”

The work of ETS involves much labor by many people. I am especially grateful for our Executive Committee, our hard-working Program Committee, and numerous volunteers who contribute so much to the success of our work. We are blessed to have Ken Magnuson as our Executive Director, assisted so well by our Meeting Planner, Bonnie Thigpen.

May the Lord bless us and cause his face to shine upon us as we come together in Denver for this annual meeting.

Pro Christo et ecclesia!

Parallel sessions

The parallel sessions are composed of five different session types.

P Program Unit Sessions

are a combination of invited papers and proposed presentations which were selected by the program unit steering committees. ETS has three types of program units: Consultations, Study Groups, and Sections. Consultations are new program units which are responsible for one session of invited papers at the annual meeting. Study Groups are narrowly focused groups which require active, collaborative participation by the group members. ETS encourages Study Groups to publish the results of their work. Study groups are responsible for one session of invited papers at the annual meeting. Sections are broadly defined groups that represent general areas of interest. Responsible for one session of invited papers and one session of papers drawn from member submissions, the Sections offer the most access for unsolicited papers.

A Affiliated Society Sessions

feature presentations that were selected and arranged by one of the three societies which join ETS each year: the Evangelical Philosophical Society, the Near East Archaeological Society, and the Adventist Theological Society.

D Discipline Specific Sessions

are composed of presentations that were submitted by ETS members and rated by a panel of scholars who served under the direction of the program chair. These presentations have been grouped into basic disciplines: Old Testament, New Testament, Systematic Theology, Church History/Historical Theology, and Practical Theology.

T Theme Sessions

are composed of presentations submitted by members, which address the conference theme. These presentations were evaluated by a panel of scholars under the direction of the program chair. The theme presentations have been arranged into cohesive sessions based on texts, topics, and methods.

FUNDAMENTAL CHRISTIAN ETHICS

Daniel R. Heimbach

$54.99 // 9780805447637

In Fundamental Christian Ethics, Daniel Heimbach offers clarity and hope for ethically navigating a pluralistic culture.

Drawn from decades of research and scholarship, this volume introduces the entire field of Christian ethics—including biblical, theological, historical, and philosophical ethics—and engages with diverse ethical issues such as abortion, sexuality, religious liberty, racism, creation care, and cultural engagement. Heimbach delivers a comprehensive textbook for scholars, teachers, pastors, and laypersons to understand God's ethical reality and to cultivate virtuous character in the people of God.

CALVINISM:

A BIBLICAL AND THEOLOGICAL CRITIQUE

David L. Allen and Steve W. Lemke, editors

$39.99 // 9781087739892

Calvinism is on the rise both in seminary classrooms and in church life. Yet the weaknesses that have plagued it historically remain relevant today; in particular, a view of salvation that can weaken gospel presentations.

In Calvinism: A Biblical and Theological Critique, editors David Allen and Steven Lemke lead a team of top-notch scholars in carefully critiquing five-point Calvinism. Sections are devoted to its core commitments, historical issues, biblical and theological issues, and ministry issues, providing a wide-ranging assessment of Calvinism's foundations and implications.

Fair-minded, deeply informed, and focused on the gospel, Calvinism: A Biblical and Theological Critique will benefit students, pastors, lay leaders, and anyone wanting to better understand the downsides of Calvinist teaching.

TRANSFORMATIONAL TEACHING:

Instructional Design for Christian Educators

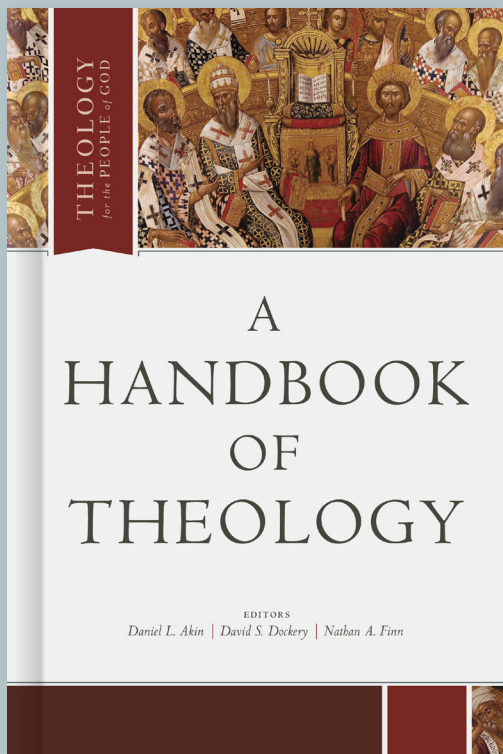

Kenneth S. Coley, Deborah L. MacCullough, and Martha E. MacCullough

Comprehensive and up-to-date, Transformational Teaching provides a survey of instructional design and effective pedagogy that incorporates a biblical worldview throughout.

Written by authors with more than a century of combined teaching experience, including K-12 classrooms in both public and Christian schools, higher education, online instruction, and international training conferences, Transformational Teaching sets a new standard for teacher training that is specifically geared to a Christian educator.

A HANDBOOK OF THEOLOGY

Daniel L. Akin, David S. Dockery, and Nathan A. Finn, editors

$49.99 // 9781087700878

APRIL 1, 2023

In A Handbook of Theology, series editors Daniel Akin, David Dockery, and Nathan Finn select nearly fifty contributors in the Baptist and evangelical heritage to lay a biblically informed foundation of a Christian theology for students, pastors, and church leaders.

This volume surveys six parts of theology: foundations (Part 1), types of theology (Part 2), history and geography (Part 3), Christian doctrine (Part 4), the Christian life (Part 5), and theology and culture (Part 6). Each author centers their theological topics in the Scriptures while also being Trinitarian, Christ-centered, Spirit-enabled, and mission-focused.

The ESV Wide-Margin Reference Bible is an enlargement of Cambridge's ESV Pitt Minion Bible. The text arrangement and pagination of the Bible text are identical but this edition uses enlarged text, has wide margins for personal notes and is printed on paper that stands up well to note-taking. Another bonus for bible study is a more extensive concordance. This Bible has red-letter text and includes cross-references, a concordance and maps. It has two ribbons and, like all Cambridge Bibles, it is Smyth-sewn for durability and ease of use.

Black Goatskin Leather Edge-lined
978-0-521-70623-0 / $360.00

A Cambridge speciality edition of the New King James Version, with wide margins and extra study features in a quality leather binding. The NKJV Wide-Margin Reference Edition is based on Cambridge's NKJV Pitt Minion Reference Edition. It has the same layout and pagination, but the text is enlarged and has generous wide margins for the reader's own insights and notes. Another difference is the concordance, which is much more extensive. The Bible is printed on slightly thicker paper for enhanced durability and, as in all Cambridge Bibles, the pages are sewn for long life and so that they lie flat when the book is open. This edition features red-letter text for the words of Christ, full cross-references, extra ruled pages for notes and 15 maps.
