

MEMORIALS

JOHN H. BALL, III

John H. Ball, III was born August 5, 1954 in Somers Point, NJ, to John H. and Betty (Groves) Ball, Jr. He was born again the summer between high school and college while alone with God reading and studying the Bible. John received his B.S. degree from Philadelphia College of Bible in 1976, and then was married to his high school and college sweetheart, Phyllis Anne Burrell on November 26, 1976 at Linwood Community Church, Linwood, NJ.

John's Th.M. degree was from Trinity Theological Seminary (1982), followed by his Ph.D. in Church history from Westminster Theological Seminary in 1990. John was a church planter, and also clerk and moderator of the Northeast Presbytery of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church while in Brick, NJ, before moving to Bartow, FL, in 1990, where he served as senior minister at Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of Bartow, and as moderator of the Florida Presbytery of his denomination. He loved classical music, played the piano, and was very interested in the Dead Sea Scrolls, even traveling to Oxford, England in 2000 for more extensive study. John served on the boards of Erskine Theological Seminary, the Crisis Pregnancy Center of Winter Haven, FL, and the Geneva Classical Academy of Lakeland, FL.

John died of colon cancer at his home in Bartow, FL on January 28, 2005. John was 50 years old. He had been a member of the Evangelical Theological Society for eight years. He leaves his wife Phyllis of Bartow, FL; daughter Laura Emily and her husband Mike Baine with their daughters Savannah, Madison, and Annesly also of Bartow, FL; daughter Martha Logan Ball, engaged to Austin Milligan, both of Bartow, FL; his father John Ball, Jr. of Maryland; his brother David C. Ball with his wife Jennifer with their eleven children of Parkton, MD.

BARTH CAMPBELL

Barth Lynn Campbell was born to Lorne and Veneta Campbell in Royal Oak, MI, on August 23, 1952, but lived most of his life in Modesto, CA. Barth was saved while in high school and was disciplined for several years under Bill Stewart at First Baptist Church of Modesto for youth ministry. He met his wife, Sandi Bell, at the Modesto church where they were married on January 5, 1974. Barth earned a B.A. in 1975 from Cal State University at Stanislaus, an M.A. from Simpson College in 1982, and his Ph.D. in NT and Theology from Fuller Theological Seminary in 1995. Barth served briefly as youth minister at First Baptist Church of Mesa, AZ, followed by eight years in Ukiah, CA, and then for three years at Elim Chapel in Winnipeg, Manitoba.

From 1996 until his death Barth served as Professor of NT at Simpson University in Redding, CA. His publications were Honor, Shame, and the Rhetoric of 1 Peter (Scholars Press, 1998); "Honor, Hospitality and Haughtiness: the Contention for Leadership in 3 John," Evangelical Quarterly 77/4 (2005); "Mark" and "1 Peter" in the Zondervan Study Bible Commentary with the KJV; and articles in The Journal for the Study of Rhetorical Criticism in the New Testament, plus a number of reviews in the Journal. He loved baseball and classical music.

Barth passed into the presence of Christ on April 26, 2005, succumbing to melanoma skin cancer at the age of 52. He had been a member of the Evangelical Theological Society for eight years. He is survived by his wife Sandi and their foster daughter, Christina Striplin of Redding, CA; daughter Katie and her husband Brian Nichols of Redding, CA; half-sister Sue Campbell of Fresno, CA; sister Karen Campbell of Modesto, CA; sister Lorna and her husband Frank Van Name of Modesto, CA; and brother Craig of Reno, NV.

BEN MICHAEL CARTER

Ben Michael Carter was born December 31, 1949 in Dallas, TX, to Ben and Hilda Carter. The family moved to Alaska, then Irving, TX, Oklahoma, and Wisconsin. Ben's B.A. was from the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee in 1972. He served with the U.S. Army in Korea and in Panama, and then lived in Puerto Rico where he received Christ as savior on May 5, 1979. He met his wife, Salma, who grew up at the Dohnavur Fellowship Orphanage in India, at the Bethany Missionary College in Minneapolis, MN, where she had come for college. They were married at Pilgrimage Church in Chicago, IL on July 3, 1982. Ben received his M.A. from Wheaton College in 1985, his Th.M. from the University of Aberdeen in 1987, and his Ph.D. from the University of Edinburgh.

Ben and Salma spent two years as missionaries teaching English in China, then returned to Irving, TX, to be near Mike's family and to pursue reading and a writing ministry. He wrote four theology books and one novel. He was a member of Our Redeemer Lutheran Church and was employed by the Dallas/Ft. Worth Hospital Council. Ben was a member of the American Scientific Affiliation, the Irving Chapter of the Texas Poetry Society, and for 18 years the Evangelical Theological Society.

Ben passed away at his home on June 5, 2005 with a marking pen in hand and the latest issue of JETS on his lap. He was 55 years old. He is survived by his wife of 25 years, Salma of Irving, TX; his brother James Carter and wife Terry of Cuyahoga Falls, OH; and his parents, Ben and Hilda Carter of Irving, TX.

ARTHUR MERLIN CLIMENHAGA

Arthur Merlin Climenhaga was born to John and Emma Climenhaga on February 21, 1916, on the campus of Messiah College, Grantham, PA, which his grandfather had founded. He was saved at age 14 in a Sunday evening evangelistic service in Oklahoma where his father was a minister. Arthur received his B.S.L. from Upland College in Upland, CA in 1936; his B.A. from Pasadena College (CA) in 1937; his M.A. from Taylor University in 1938; and his S.T.D. from Los Angeles Baptist Theological Seminary in 1944. Arthur married Arlene Brubaker in Ashland, OH on August 27, 1938. Arthur served as president of Upland College from 1939–44, and then he and Arlene went as missionaries to Rhodesia and Zambia in 1945, where he was District Superintendent, then General Superintendent and Bishop of the Brethren in Christ Church. They returned to the United States in 1960 because of Arlene's health. Arthur was then president of Messiah College in Grantham, PA (1960–64), during which time the college received its accreditation. Arthur served as Executive Director of the National Association of Evangelicals from 1964–67, while living in Wheaton, IL.

Arthur next served as Bishop of the Brethren in Christ Church in California. There Arlene died in 1968 after being cared for by her niece Lona Sue Brubaker, who had recently returned from seven years of missionary service in Zambia. On September 27, 1969, Arthur and Lona Sue Brubaker were united in marriage in Ashland, OH. Arthur served as Dean of Western Evangelical Seminary in Portland, OR from 1973–80, and was General Secretary of the Brethren in Christ Church. Then in 1980 the Climenhagas returned to Ashland, OH, where Arthur headed the doctoral program at Ashland Theological Seminary until retirement in 1983.

Arthur penned a number of books in Africa, as well as for Beacon Hill Press and Moody Press. During his retirement he spoke, taught, and preached as needed. He was a member of the Evangelical Theological Society for 40 of his 89 years. Arthur died on April 25, 2005 at Blackwater Falls, WV, after a walk with Lona. He had no children, but leaves his wife Lona in Mechanicsburg, PA; brother David with his wife Verna Mae of Messiah Village, PA; sister Leota Climenhaga of Peekskill, NY; and many nieces and nephews.

ROBERT HARVEY COUNTESS

Robert Harvey Countess was born August 26, 1937 in Memphis, TN, to Parks and Kathleen (Casey) Countess. Robert was religious as a child and read the Bible, but he was not saved until he served in the military. While stationed at Fort Dix in New Jersey, Robert met Patricia Davis. They corresponded while Robert was in Germany in the late 1950s, and were married in August, 1961, at Patricia's home church in Asbury Park, NJ. Robert's B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees were earned at Bob Jones University between 1961 and 1966. He later received his M.L.S. degree from Georgetown University in 1978.

Robert was chairman of the foreign languages department at Covenant College from 1966–68. He then taught philosophy and NT Greek at Tennessee State University in Nashville, TN, from 1969–74. Robert served in the U.S. Army as a chaplain from 1974–84, then taught history at the University of Alabama at Huntsville, and Latin at the Randolph School from 1985–87. He penned several books, and filled in occasionally at Alabama A & M, and at Oakwood College (SDA). He served as a professor of NT at Birmingham Theological Seminary in Alabama, and taught speech classes at a local community college.

Robert was a member of the Evangelical Theological Society since 1996, and delivered several papers at annual meetings. Robert died of a malignant brain tumor on March 20, 2005 in Athens, GA. He was 68. He is survived by his second wife of 17 years, Elda (nee Bergeron) of Toney, AL; his son Tim with his wife Jonnesa and their son Ryan and daughter Bristol of Harvest, AL; and his son Stephen with his wife Mandee and their son Henry of Huntsville, AL.

STANLEY JAMES GRENZ

Stanley James Grenz was born on January 5, 1950, in Alpena, MI, where his father Richard Grenz pastored a North American Baptist congregation. Stan was a disc jockey in college and studied philosophy before his call to the ministry. His B.A. was achieved at the University of Colorado in 1973. Following his marriage to Edna Sturhahn in Denver on December 29, 1973, Stan completed his M.Div. at Denver Seminary in 1976, and a D.Theol. at the University of Munich under Pannenberg in 1978. He taught for two years at the NAB school in Winnipeg, then at North American Baptist Seminary in Sioux Falls, SD, from 1981–90, followed by 12 years at Carey Theological College and Regent College in Vancouver, BC as the Pioneer McDonald Professor of Baptist Heritage, Theology and Ethics.

Stan taught at Northern Baptist Theological Seminary (1996–99) and Baylor University/Truett Seminary for the 2002–2003 school year before returning to Regent in 2003. He also taught theological studies at Mars Hill Graduate School in Seattle in 2004. Stanley penned 25 books, over 100 articles, and 80 book reviews. He was a member of the Evangelical Theological Society for 10 years. Stan died on March 12, 2005 at the age of 55. Left to mourn his loss are his wife Edna of Blaine, WA; son Joel with his wife Jennifer of Vancouver, BC; daughter Corrina with husband Christopher Kuban and their daughter, Anika of Vancouver, BC; brother Lyle of Spain; sister Jan with her husband Charles Poole of Denver; and mother Clara Grenz of Denver.

MICHAEL LOWELL HOLT

Michael Lowell Holt was born on July 30, 1954 in Davenport, IA to Charles and Nancy (Bearbower) Holt. Michael was saved the summer between high school and college, soon after his mother received Christ. However, his experience at a liberal church-related college left him stunned and confused. A Campus Crusade for Christ retreat then set him on the right course and helped determine his life goals. In 1977 Michael received a B.A. from Moody Bible Institute where he met Debbie Copeland. They were married on August 6, 1977 at Debbie's home church, Emmanuel Baptist of Chicago Heights, IL.

Michael earned his Th.M. degree from Dallas Theological Seminary in 1983, then pastored the First Reformed Church of Xenia, OH (now Cornerstone Bible Church), for 16 years. Michael was also Assistant Professor of Biblical Studies at Cedarville University, teaching freshman Bible classes as well as homiletics. Because Michael's own faith was shaken during his freshman college experience, he was instrumental in producing the spiritual formation and Christian life and thought courses at Cedarville University. His D.Min. studies in homiletics at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary were cut short by his death.

Michael was a member of the Evangelical Theological Society since 2001 and a member of the GARB affiliated Southgate Baptist Church in Springfield, OH. He loved the outdoors (camping, fishing, and gardening), home improvement projects, and gourmet cooking. Michael passed from this life on July 4, 2005, while vacationing at his parents' home in Blue Grass, IA. He lived 50 years, 11 months, and 4 days. The Michael Holt Memorial Scholarship Fund has been established at Cedarville University in Michael's memory to assist young ministry students. Michael is survived by Debbie, his wife of 28 years, and their son Brian, of Xenia, OH; Brian's wife, Anna of Cedarville, OH; Michael's parents, Charles and Nancy Holt of Blue Grass, IA; his sister Sue with her husband, Tom Moon, and their daughter, Catie, missionaries in Puebla, Mexico; and many other aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives, close friends, and colleagues. Michael is buried at Woodland Cemetery, Xenia, OH.

ROBERT LEE KENNEDY

Robert Lee Kennedy was born on March 22, 1948, in Augsburg, Bavaria. His military father, R. L. Kennedy, married his Polish/German refugee secretary, Jutta Ursula. Little Robert returned to the United States to live in Colorado when he was six months old. He received his education at Colorado State University (B.A., 1971), Dallas Theological Seminary (Th.M., 1978), and the University of Aberdeen (Ph.D., 1990). Serving as a missionary, Bob taught in Switzerland where he met his wife, Monika vom Hofe, one of his students. They were married in Hagen, Germany at Monika's home church on May 3, 1980. Sons Patrick and Peter were born in Scotland (1982) and in Switzerland (1984), respectively. The Kennedys returned to America in 1989 where Bob served as Chairman of the Department of Missions at Washington Bible College and Capital Bible Seminary in Lanham, MD. He also served as Director of Accreditation at WBC/CBC. In 2001 Bob became Academic Dean at Michigan Theological Seminary in Plymouth, MI. Robert and his family were members of Oak Pointe Church, where he led several mission trips for OPC members to Zambia. Diagnosed with tongue cancer in June 2004, Robert died one year later on August 24, 2005. He was 57 years old. Robert had been a member of ETS since 2003.

Left to mourn his passing are his wife of 25 years, Monika, with her son, Peter of Bloomfield, MI; son Patrick of Valdosta, GA; and his sister

Colleen with her husband Jeff Jones and her stepson Benjamin of Simi Valley, CA.

ARTHUR HERBERT LEWIS

Arthur Herbert Lewis was born August 25, 1923 in Kalamazoo, MI, the older of two sons born to Arthur Gordon and Gertrude (Duddles) Lewis. His studies at Wheaton College were interrupted by World War II, where he flew thirty-four missions as a bombardier over Europe. Finishing Wheaton in 1947 with his B.A. in philosophy, Art married Helen Drake on June 7, 1947, at the College Church. His B.D. was received from Gordon Divinity School in 1950, followed by an M.A. in Semitics from Harvard Graduate School in 1952. Returning to Europe, Arthur taught at Leiria Baptist Seminary in Portugal from 1952–64, then returned to the United States and completed his Ph.D. in Semitics at Brandeis University in 1966. From 1966–88 Arthur was professor of Old Testament at Bethel College in St. Paul, MN. Art wrote several books before he suffered a stroke. He spent his last 15 years in a wheel chair, but was actively serving Christ. Art was a member of the Evangelical Theological Society for 48 years and served as President of the Society in 1973. Art wrote The Dark Side of the Millennium (Baker), Judges-Ruth (Moody), and ready at his passing was The Splendor of His Kingdom. Art was a translator for the NIV, and his articles appeared in Bereia, JETS, and the Standard.

Art passed into the presence of Christ on March 8, 2005, in St. Paul, MN, at the age of 81 years, 6 months, and 11 days. He was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church (BGC) of Roseville, MN, and is buried at Fort Snelling National Cemetery. Art had received the “Purple Heart,” and his gravestone reads, “Finished His Final Mission.”

Art is survived by his wife Helen of St. Paul; son Jonathan Drake Lewis with his wife Anita of Spokane, WA, and their daughter Julie Lewis in Indonesia, son Adam Lewis at Biola University, and son Nathaniel Lewis of Spokane; daughter Joia Lewis Turner of Berkeley, CA, with her daughter Alix; son Theodore Gordon Lewis with his wife, Nancy, of Eugene, OR, and their two daughters, Eleandra and Charity; and brother Ralph Wesley Lewis with his wife, Donna, of Minnetonka, MN.

CARL RAYMOND LUDWIGSON AND KATHRYN ROMAINE LUDWIGSON

Carl Raymond Ludwigson was born in Illinois on March 3, 1908, and passed into glory from Toccoa, GA, on December 15, 2004 at the age of 96 years, 9 months, and 12 days. He was a graduate of Moody Bible Institute and earned his B.A. in Biblical Education at Wheaton College. His Bachelor of Divinity and S.T.M. were taken from Chicago Lutheran School of Theology. His Ph.D. came from the University of Iowa in biblical studies.

Raymond was distinguished professor of biblical studies at Wheaton College for 24 years, including the period of 1944–49, and again from 1955–68. After his first wife died in the mid-1940s, he married Kathryn R. Miller, his former student, who had just graduated from Wheaton and was teaching Greek at the school. From 1949–55, Dr. Ludwigson served as President of Trinity Seminary and Bible College in Chicago (now TIU and TEDS in Deerfield, IL). He served in student and interim pastorates for 43 years and wrote The Gospel of the Old Testament, The Structure of the Book of Revelation, Notes on Prophecy, and A Survey of Bible Prophecy (Zondervan, 1973). Carl also taught biblical studies at Toccoa Falls College from 1977 until his second retirement in 1995.

Kathryn Romaine (Miller) Ludwigson was born on July 30, 1921 in Pennsylvania. She and Ray were united in marriage on April 3, after she began teaching Greek at Wheaton College. They had one son, Carl, born in Illinois in 1948. Kathryn earned a B.A. in Biblical Education at Columbia Bible College in Columbia, SC, and a B.A. in Christian Education at Wheaton College. She received her M.A. in Theology from Wheaton College, then a M.S. in English from Northern Illinois University. Her Ph.D. in English was from Northwestern University. Kathryn was a Literary Critic for the NIV and taught English at Wheaton College from 1959–77. In addition, she served as department chair in English at Trinity College (Deerfield) from 1966–71. In 1977, the Ludwigsons moved to Toccoa, GA, where Dr. Kathryn Ludwigson became Director of the School of General Studies and Professor of English at Toccoa Falls College.

Carl and Kay were both active members of the Evangelical Theological Society for many years. Kay's paper entitled "Postmodernism: A Declaration of Bankruptcy," delivered at a SE regional meeting, was later published in The Challenge of Postmodernism: An Evangelical Engagement (ed. David Dockery; Victor Books, 1995). Her literary book on Edward Dowden was published by Twayne in 1973. Kay passed away several months after Carl, on July 24, 2005 in Toccoa, GA. Both Carl and Kathryn are buried in the Mount Bethel Church of God Cemetery in Habersham County, GA. Their son, Carl Ludwigson, of Toccoa, GA, survives his parents.

ROSS MUNNERLYN

Ross Munnerlyn was born on September 21, 1960 in Houston, TX, the second of four sons born to William and Kathleen (Davis) Munnerlyn. The family moved to Southern California in 1968 when William was called there as a pastor. Ross was a graduate of Westmont College in Santa Barbara, CA (B.A., 1983), where he met his bride, Jacquie Craine. They were married on August 25, 1984, at Jacquie's home church, Nutwood Street Baptist Church, in Garden Grove, CA. Ross continued his education at Talbot School of Theology (M.A.B.S., 1986) and Biola University (Ed.D., 1996). His master's thesis was "A Reconsideration of the Colossian Heresy," and his doctoral dissertation was "A Content Analysis of Introductory New Testament Greek Grammar Texts and Course Syllabi with Reference to Learner Behaviors Identified by Second Language Acquisition."

Ross was the site administrator for Bethel Seminary in Whittier, CA, and lived with his wife Jacquie and their two children, Melissa (17), and Mike (10) in Brea, CA. Ross was an active member of the Baptist General Conference and the Whittier Area Community Church. His primary job was teaching at a local high school. He coordinated Bible clubs throughout the Southern California area. He was a member of ETS since 1988.

Ross departed this life to be with Christ on July 3, 2005. He was just 44 years of age and died in his sleep while camping with the family near Santa Barbara, CA. Ross' four brothers each spoke briefly at his funeral, and about 15 persons responded to the gospel message. Ross is buried at Memorial Gardens in Brea, CA. Left to mourn his passing are his wife, Jacquie, with children Melissa and Mike, in Brea, CA; brother Ford Munnerlyn in Giessen, Germany; brother Tom Munnerlyn and his wife Beth, with their children Peter, Hannah, and Abraham of Houston, TX; brother Noah Munnerlyn of Long Beach, CA; and brother Boaz Munnerlyn with his wife Allison and children Mollie, Cooper, Robert, and Lillie of Houston, TX.

AUSTIN HENRY POTTS

Austin Henry Potts was born on February 5, 1928 near Orwigsburg, PA, the oldest of eight children. Coming out of a coal miner's home, Austin received a diploma from Philadelphia School of the Bible in 1950 and then went to Wheaton College where he took a B.A. in 1952 and an M.A. in 1957. His Ph.D. came from Dropsie College in 1971. Austin served as Dean of men for several years at Philadelphia College of Bible and then joined the biblical faculty. He was married to Irene Douts in 1957.

Austin Potts was a member of the Evangelical Theological Society for 34 years. He wrote approximately twenty articles for the Baker Bible Dictionary and was a member of the Easterville Baptist Church. Austin died at the Grandview Hospital in Perkasio, PA, on August 31, 2004 at the age of 76. He is buried at Kimmel's Church of God Cemetery. Austin is survived by his wife Irene of Souderton, PA; daughter Beverly with her husband Daniel LaValla and their sons Shane and Zachary of Harleysville, PA; daughter Linda with her husband Todd Mangum and their sons Caleb, Seth, and Jesse of Souderton, PA; brother Earl Potts with his wife Noreda of Lancaster, PA; and brother Wilbur Potts with his wife Lydia of Lititz, PA.

DONALD PHILLIP ROBERTS

Donald Phillip Roberts was born on September 2, 1947, in Nashville, TN, to Don and Lane Roberts. He grew up in Brentwood, TN, and graduated from Franklin High School in 1965. He received his A.A. degree from Florida College in Temple Terrace, FL, in 1967; his B.A. from the University of South Florida in 1970; an M.A. from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in 1974; and his Ph.D. from Westminster Theological Seminary in 2001, writing on the poetic devices in the Song of Solomon. This 800-page work is being published by University Press of America. Phil joined the Evangelical Theological Society in 1998 and was a member of SBL.

Phillip was active in the pulpit ministry, serving churches of Christ at Bridgeview, IL (1970–74); Plano, IL (1974–78); Cortez, FL (1978–85); and Antioch Church of Christ, Thonotosassa, FL (1985–2005). Phillip worked four seasons at Lachish and two seasons at Jezreel as an assistant supervisor. He loved photography and used it on the archaeological digs. Phillip began teaching at Florida in 1978 and continued there for 27 years, being honored as teacher of the year 10 times. He met his wife Eileen Dalrymple at Florida College, and they were married on January 16, 1992, in Nashville, TN, in Phil's boyhood home. Eileen continued her education, earning a Ph.D., and is a practicing clinical psychologist.

Phil departed the Tampa General Hospital to be with Christ on April 10, 2005 after a bout with pancreatic cancer. He was 57 years old. Left to mourn his passing are his wife Eileen with their sons Don, 9, and David, 5, of Temple Terrace, FL; sister Marty with her husband Jeff Hazeldon of Brentwood, TN; brother Hill Roberts with his wife Carol and their daughters Melissa, Brooke, and Rachel of Huntsville, AL; parents Don and Lane Roberts of Nashville, TN; niece Samantha (Hazeldon) and her husband Jonathan Grant of Tampa, FL; and niece Mandy (Hazeldon) with her husband Dan Clayborn and their son Sean of Franklin, TN.

SAMUEL J. SCHULTZ

Samuel J. Schultz was born to Anna and David D. Schultz in Mountain Lake, MN, on June 9, 1914, and was born again as a nine year-old boy attending Vacation Bible School. His parents were Mennonite and spoke only German until 1920. Sam attended St. Paul Bible Institute for two years, and then received an A.A. degree from Bethel Junior College in 1938, followed by his B.A. in 1940 from John Fletcher College in Oskaloosa, IA. That summer, Sam and his future wife, Eyla June Tolliver, met at a camp meeting in Normal, IL. He was singing with a male quartet, and June was the camp pianist. They were married on June 17, 1943 at the First Church of the Nazarene in Springfield, IL

In 1944 Sam received his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Faith Theological Seminary in Wilmington, DE, followed by his S.T.M. from Harvard University in 1945, and his Th.D. from Harvard in 1947. Sam Schultz served as an instructor at Gordon College in Boston, MA, taught at Bethel Seminary in St. Paul, MN from 1947–49, and was a part-time instructor at St. Paul Bible Institute (now Crown College) in 1948–49. From 1949–80 he taught Old Testament at Wheaton College, Wheaton, IL. He was Samuel Robinson Professor of Biblical Studies and Theology Emeritus upon his retirement.

Sam wrote a number of works, including The Old Testament Speaks (Harper and Row, 1960, now in its 5th edition); Old Testament Survey (E.T.T.A., 1968); Prophets Speak (1968); Deuteronomy: The Gospel of Love (Moody, 1971); The Gospel of Moses (1974); Leviticus; God Among His People

(Moody, 1983); and Messages of the Old Testament (1983). In 1983 Eisenbrauns published a Festschrift, The Living and Active Word of God: Studies in Honor of Samuel J. Schultz, edited by Morris Inch and Ron Youngblood. Sam was a Literary Critic and Consultant for the New International Version. He was a long-time member of Evangel Baptist Church in Wheaton (BGC), and for the last ten years in Wheaton a part of Christ Church in Oakbrook, IL. Sam was also part of Grace Chapel in Lexington, MA, and The Village Church in Shell Point, FL.

Sam died of acute Leukemia on June 24, 2005. He was the 28th member to join in forming the Evangelical Theological Society on December 28, 1949. He served as JETS editor from 1962–75 during his 56-year ETS membership. Left to mourn Sam's departure are his wife June of Ft. Myers, FL; daughter Linda with her husband Norwood Anderson of Milwaukee, WI; son David with his wife Esther (Chang) and their son Peter of East Lexington, MA; grandson Bjorn Anderson and his wife Abby (Wheeler) of Exeter, NH; grandson Lars Anderson with his wife Kelly (Lawrence) and their son Bengt of Pensacola, FL; granddaughter Erika (Anderson) with her husband Richard Cronin of Ireland; grandson Matthew Schultz at NY University; and grandson Daniel Schultz of Gordon College.

James A. Borland
Secretary-Treasurer, ETS