Name tags must be worn to secure admittance to any of the sessions. All presenters must register.

Discussion at Sessions

The ETS welcomes associate members and guests from the general Christian public to attend all sessions of the annual meeting. However, in welcoming guests it is also important that we protect the original purpose of the ETS as an academic society where scholars can come to interact with other scholars in their fields. Because time for such discussion is necessarily limited, we ask that only full members of the ETS (those with Th.M. or Ph.D. or equivalent degree) and student members currently enrolled in a Ph.D. program take part in the discussions following the paper presentations.

( C O N T I N U E D )

Timing

Each parallel session lasts 40 minutes. Since one of the primary purposes of the annual meeting is to give opportunity for scholarly interaction, presenters are asked to complete reading of their papers in about 25 minutes, or 30 minutes if absolutely necessary, leaving 10 to 15 minutes for interaction with listeners.

Worship and Prayer

One addition to the program this year is 20 minutes of worship and prayer preceding each day's activities. All meeting participants are encouraged to start our day together with this brief time of a cappella singing of hymns and prayer for God's blessing and guidance for the day to follow.

Tapes of Sessions

Again this year tapes of sessions will be available almost immediately after each session at the ACTS tape table.

Book Shipping

For the first time this year a book shipping service will be available in a booth adjacent to the exhibit hall. ETS meeting participants can purchase books from all major evangelical publishers at a substantial discount (usually 50%) and have them shipped home immediately for a nominal fee.

IBR/ AAR/ SBL

The annual meetings of the Institute for Biblical Research, American Academy of Religion, and Society for Biblical Literature will be held November 20-21 (IBR) and November 21-24 (AAR/SBL) at the Walt Disney World Swan and Dolphin hotel. (Phone 407.934.2800; FAX 407.934.4710.) The Swan and Dolphin is about 15 miles or 25 minutes from the Radisson Twin Towers. The quickest way there is to drive. There is no direct shuttle but a $10 shuttle will take you nearby and perhaps a $5 taxi ride or 15 minute walk will then get you to Swan and Dolphin.

Future Meetings

The meeting next year will be at the Sheraton Ferncroft Resort in Danvers, Massachusetts (a suburb of Boston) (phone 978.777.2500). The meeting will be held November 17-19, 1999 (Wednesday 9:00 a.m. to Friday noon). The general theme will be "Eschatology." Please note the change to a Wednesday—Thursday—Friday meeting.

Future meetings are tentatively planned as follows:

Year	Place	General Theme
2000	Nashville (Opry Land Hotel)	Israel—Past, Present, and Future
2001	Denver	Defining Evangelicalism's Boundaries
2002	Toronto	To be announced

The Book of Revelation has long been a topic of much debate, particularly concerning how it is to be interpreted. Here now is Four Views on the Book of Revelation, the newest book in the Counterpoints Series, to help scholars and students alike sort through the four major interpretive views and come to their own conclusions. The four views presented by a respected proponent of that view. Each author also reflects on the views of the others.

Kenneth L. Gentry presents the preterist view; Sam Hamstra Jr. the idealist view; C. Marvin Pate (also serving as general editor) the progressive dispensationalist view; and Robert L. Thomas the classical dispensationalist view. This format provides lively and healthy interaction sure to engage the mind of the reader in this important and timely issue.
