Call for Papers

Deadline: January 31

Our keynote speaker is Dr. Patrick Schreiner, Associate Professor of New Testament and Biblical Theology at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He will give two addresses on “Political Gospel: How Christians Responded to Rome and What We Can Learn.”

Guidelines and Instructions for Paper Proposals

We invite members and student members of ETS to submit proposals.

Not a member? Apply here.

The proposal must include the following:

1. The title of the paper
2. The purpose of the paper
3. A concise summary of the paper (250-500 words)

Please include the following personal information:

1. Your name, address, e-mail, and phone number
2. Your present position and institution (professor, student, pastor, or other)
3. Your highest academic degree attained and the institution, and current degree program and institution if relevant
4. Your ETS membership status—Are you a full, associate, or student member or an applicant for membership?

Email your paper proposal as an attachment to MarkBradley@gs.edu by Jan. 31.
Enter “ETS Paper Proposal” in the subject line.

ETS-NW officers will respond by Feb. 15 to inform you whether your proposal is approved.
