

The Evangelical Theological Society
March 18-19, 2016
Columbia International University, Columbia, SC
Theme: "The Problem of God and Evil"

Dear ETS and EPS Members,

Greetings in our Lord from Columbia International University in Columbia, SC! We are privileged to be hosting the 2016 Southeastern Regional meeting on March 18-19. In a day where many are asking how to understand God's sovereignty in the face of tremendous evil and suffering in the world, we want to consider together the theme: "The Problem of God and Evil." Helping us address this theme will be our plenary speaker Dr. Paul Copan, Professor and Pledger Family Chair of Philosophy and Ethics at Palm Beach Atlantic University. He is the author of numerous books including Is God a Moral Monster? Making Sense of the Old Testament God (Baker 2011) and most recently with Matthew Flannagan, Did God Really Command Genocide? Coming to Terms with the Justice of God (2014).

All ETS and EPS members are invited to submit paper proposals on this year's theme. As always, papers on topics not directly related to the theme are also welcome. If you wish to submit a paper, please send your proposed title, a brief abstract of not more than 300 words, and the paper proposal form by February 15, 2016 to mklausli@ciu.edu. Student members are encouraged to submit proposals. Student members must include completed papers. Awards will be given to student-presenters for outstanding papers.

Should you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

We look forward to seeing you at the meeting!

In Christ's Peace,

Markus Klausli, Ph.D.
Professor of NT and Greek
